

ACORUS MISSION and SERVICES

ACORUS is a Czech non-profit non-governmental organization established in 1997. Its mission is to help people suffering from domestic violence and return them to normal life without fear and abuse. The vast majority of ACORUS clients are women with children, they come from all over the Czech Republic.

ACORUS runs:

- safe house with undisclosed address for women and children
- non-stop crisis telephone helpline
- counselling and advice centre in Prague 7
- crisis help

ACORUS provides a wide range of specialised services including psychological counselling and therapy, legal and financial advisory, social consulting, activities designed to improve mother-child relationship. All services are provided free of charge and anonymously. They are linked and create a complex system of protection and help designed to support victims in their return to normal life. More information at www.acorus.cz

On average ACORUS every year provides:

- 1200 consultations in its counselling centre in Prague 7
- crisis accommodation for 27 women and 33 children
- accommodation in its safe house for 31 women and 43 children
- consultations on non-stop crisis helpline for 725 people

NONSTOP HELPLINE 283 892 772

www.acorus.cz

info@acorus.cz